SERA Flood Control Help Is Promised

Assemblyman Martin Assured Of Full Cooperation In Foothill Area

Assemblyman Frank G. Martin has been assured by Vernon D. Northrop, State SERA administrator, that he will co-operate to the fullest extent with the county government in its flood control plans in the foothill area. Replying to a letter from the Assemblyman the SERA official wrote Martin as follows:

"Replying to your letter of November 5, I wish to assure you that I am endeavoring to co-operate in every possible way with the communities in Southern California in the matter of additional flood control work."

"Since the storm of October 17, seven separate projects have been approved calling for the removal of debris washed down from the foothills into the streets of various communities. The total estimated cost of these projects is $69,661.00. These, of course, are clean-up projects which have no bearing on prevention of further floods. However, we have had under way since the latter part of September, a debris dam in the Verdugo Wash which will cost approximately $186,000. It is expected that this dam can be completed by the first of the year. When completed, it will very definitely reduce the flood hazard in the area downstream."

"There has also been approved a project providing for improvement of the channels of Cooks Canyon and Pickens Canyon which will reduce the flood menace in the Montrose area. This work will cost approximately $18,000."

"Both of the last-named projects are sponsored by the Los Angeles Flood Control District. We are assuming, of course, that the planning and sponsorship of flood control projects is, and should remain in the hands of this district. We stand ready to co-operate in any possible way in carrying on other projects which this District may propose, or which other public agencies may offer."

"With reference to work on private property, I think you fully realize that such work is ordinarily not permitted by our regulations. Naturally, in case of emergency an exception could be made. In the case of the recent flood in Southern California, a request for assistance on certain privately-owned property was, in fact, granted, but it is my understanding that the sponsors of the proposed work decided to carry it on in some other way not requiring the assistance of this organization."

"I appreciate your interest in the program and will welcome suggestions from you at any time."

Forum Sessions To Resume In January

No meetings of the Sierra Madre Forum will be held here until January, according to Victor O. Schmidt, president of the organization. On Monday evening December 19, the local membership has a special invitation to attend the Pasadena Town Hall meeting at which Dr. Frederick Roman will be the chief speaker. Harold Carew is scheduled to present a talk on "Current Events," at this time also.

CITY RESPONDS GENEROUSLY TO MEMBERSHIP DRIVE OF LOCAL RED CROSS CHAPTER

THE Red Cross Roll Call got off to a smashing start this week with Captain E. G. Everett, Roll Call chairman, setting a pace which his helpers will find calls for real effort to emulate. Up to Wednesday noon well over a hundred memberships had been reported to headquarters. Miss Louise Judson, secretary, said she did not wish to make a more definite statement at that time as some of the teams who were actively working had not taken time to report on their memberships.

"One of the most satisfactory features this year," she said, "is the way in which our campaign is being received by the public. So far our workers have met with only the greatest kindness and courtesy. In many cases there have been such encouraging expressions of appreciation of the work our chapter is doing here that the workers have gone on with redoubled enthusiasm."

"It helps a lot to know that our townspeople really understand what we are doing for the community as a whole for often we have been getting by on such a narrow margin that the officers have had some very uneasy and apprehensive days."

"But the way has always opened to continue the work and, with a successful Roll Call, the chapter will be in shape to carry on this coming year."

A letter, with check enclosed, announcing that all 20 members of the Volunteer Fire Department wished to enroll as members, was one of the first to reach headquarters. Several other organizations announced that their full memberships would go on the roster in a few days.

Blind Woman Says Her Relief Check Forged By Landlord

Frank J. Turba will go on trial before a jury in the City Hall Monday morning at 10 o'clock, on a petty theft charge issued against him by the Sierra Madre Savings Bank. Judge Tom Neale will be on the bench.

The complaint alleges that Turba forged endorsement on a $35 check recently. The check was mailed here to Eva V. Ryan, from the County Relief of Needy Blind department. Mrs. Ryan, an aged blind woman, lived with the Turba family in Sierra Madre until September 15. When she moved to Pasadena, Turba, it is charged, signed and cashed the check.

Mrs. Ryan, although blind, alleges she never was in possession of the check, nor received its proceeds.

City Plans To Halt Damage From Floods

Property owners in the southwest section of the city who following the recent heavy rainstorm here asked city aid in combating the destructive runoff from the mountain sector must bear half the burden of necessary flood control measures, it was decided by City Business Manager Al S. Myers in his report to the City Council Wednesday night.

Myers, who made a survey of the situation confronting residents in the southwest portion of the city affected by storm waters which annually rush south from the city, stated that he believed SERA workers may be secured to carry out a proposed water diversion project—but that the property owners themselves would have to bear the burden of the necessary materials and equipment. No tax funds are available for any such work, it was reported.

Some years ago a natural water channel continued from the end of a stream bed now cutting through the Wright estate and the Lawless estate in the north-west part of the city, and carried all mountain runoff down to Orange Grove with little or no damage to intervening property. Since that time much of the stream bed has been filled in as the result of various lot improvements and now flood waters spread disastrously between Mariposa and Orange Grove, west of Lima street to Park avenue.

According to general tentative plans submitted by Myers, much of the damage could be averted by construction of an underground pipeline conduit to cut diagonally south from Mariposa street, west of Lima, over to Lima between Ramona and Manzanita. Such a system would divert all water in a compact stream, and prevent washouts caused by spreading.

Work on the upper portion of Lima street was also recommended as a means of preventing too swift fall of waters from the Bailey Canyon channel. Inasmuch as dirt is needed for filling in on Orange Grove in connection with the paving project now under way, it was suggested that the crown be cut off upper Lima street in order to create a lesser rate of fall and a greater carrying capacity near the source of the runoff.

Rogers Buy Home On Highland Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Rogers have purchased the Harold Costello home, at 277 West Highland avenue, through the office of Mrs. Nora M. Mesecar. Mr. and Mrs. Rogers formerly resided at 306 West Highland avenue.

Another protest was read the Council from Arcadia's city attorney against the diversion of storm waters on Central avenue, Arcadia complaining that the western section of that city. A suggested joint meeting of the Councils of the two cities was held under advisement.

'Pay As You Play' May Be Night Rule On Tennis Courts

Sierra Madres who play tennis at night will probably have to pay for the lights they play under. At Wednesday's meeting of the City Council the subject was taken up when bills for October were being passed upon and it was discovered that it costs between $30 and $40 a month for the floodlights. Carelessness of the players and failure to obey the regulation that the lights must go off at 10 o'clock were given as reasons for the proposal to install a "quarter in the slot" machine. While they are lighted every night it was reported that many nights the courts go unused.

Carelessness Held Cause Of Accident

Coroner's Jury Divides Responsibility For Death Of Harold Biedler

A coroner's jury inquiring into the accident at Central and Baldwin avenues that caused the death of Harold Biedler returned a verdict holding that both Mr. Biedler and Fred Robbins, of 280 San Gabriel court, driver of the truck that struck Mr. Biedler, were at fault. It made no recommendation that charges be preferred against Robbins and local authorities are awaiting word from the district attorney's office as to further action in the case.

Robbins was to have appeared before City Judge Tom Neale this morning to answer a charge of violating the State traffic law that gives pedestrians the right of way at street crossings. The case will be continued until the district attorney is heard from.

The inquest was held here on Friday. Arthur Embree and Fred Vannier testified that while they had not actually seen the accident, their attention was drawn to it by the impact as Robbins' truck struck Mr. Biedler hurling him into the air.

The accident occurred just after dark on November 6 as Mr. Biedler was on his way to the Baldwin avenue polling place to cast his ballot. He was crossing Central avenue at Baldwin when he was struck. An autopsy revealed that death resulted from a fractured skull and inter-cranial hemorrhage, although it was thought when Mr. Biedler was taken to the hospital that he was suffering only from a broken leg and many bruises.

Another Room Added To Quarters Of City Police And Firemen

Work was near completion this week on the addition to the second floor of the City Hall, occupied by volunteer firemen and members of the city police department.

In preparation for winter weather a roof has been built over the porch atop the fire station house, and glass enclosures are being added along the side of the balcony. The room will be comfortably furnished, and in the summertime the glass partitions may be removed and the quarters converted into a sunporch.

During the process of construction, the cement wall on the south side of the building was torn down, and it was discovered that a large amount of water had seeped between the wall and the cement floor. The present construction thus possibly averted much damage to the City Hall itself. The work is being done mostly by the firemen themselves.

Bid Of Union Oil Co. Wins Orange Grove Improvement Job

The Union Oil company was awarded the contract to supply the oil for paving of Orange Grove avenue at Wednesday night's meeting of the City Council. Five companies, the Union, Standard, Gilmore, Richfield and Shell, submitted the identical figure of $2.10 a barrel, it being explained that the NRA was responsible for the uniform bid. Awarding of the rock contract for the same job was deferred until the next Council meeting.

The Sierra Madre Lumber company offered a price of $1.49 a ton. Graham Bros., a Los Angeles concern, bid $1.48 1/2.

Another protest was read the Council from Arcadia's city attorney against the diversion of storm waters on Central avenue, Arcadia complaining that the western section of that city. A suggested joint meeting of the Councils of the two cities was held under advisement.

Communists Real Menace PTA Is Told

"Tremendous Danger" Lurks In Movement Local Body Is Warned

That the Parent-Teacher Association of Sierra Madre is doing its utmost for child welfare was proved in the report given by Mrs. Boyd Keith, president, at the open meeting of the Pasadena Council held in the school auditorium on Wednesday of this week.

Miss Elizabeth Steinberger extended a gracious welcome to the out-of-town guests. Dr. Roy Laurin, in his informative talk appealed to members of the organization and the public in general to combat Communism. "We are all concerned," he said, "in the tremendous danger along the line of Communism and should be on guard against its evils. The Communists in this country have organized into districts, California being the thirteenth, and from recent strikes and other agitations it can be seen that they are really working in this state. It is the dream and hope of professional agitators to put International Communism into every nation of the world." Suppression, prison, and deportation were cited as ways in which to combat this evil.

Following the program luncheon was served to a hundred and twenty-five guests and members of the organization, under the direction of Mrs. Joseph Asbury, hospitality chairman.

Mrs. Herbert Hoover, Jr., of Sierra Madre avenue, daughter-in-law of the former president, spoke briefly, urging P. T. A. support of the Los Angeles Philharmonic association. She said that the Philharmonic is a cultural asset of extreme value to the whole of Southern California.

A benefit card party to be given December 7 is being planned by the local P. T. A. The proceeds will go to the welfare fund. The various clubs and social organizations of the city are doing their part by contributing the prizes for the games.

The next meeting of the Sierra Madre P. T. A. will be held in the school auditorium on Wednesday afternoon, November 21. Mrs. H. A. Mansfield, president of the Pasadena Council will be the guest speaker. Mrs. Keith hopes to see all members and prospective members present at this meeting.

TOWNSEND PENSION PLAN AND 30-HOUR WEEK ARE SCORED AS OPPOSING AMERICAN IDEALS

U. S. Chamber Of Commerce Executive Addresses Directors Of Local Body

SEES RADICAL CONGRESS

SCORING the Townsend Old Age Pension Plan, the 30-hour week bill and the Wagner labor dispute bill as measures untenable to American ideals, Leonard A. Read, western division manager of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce spoke at a meeting of the local Chamber's directors in the City Hall Monday afternoon.

Read, who is contacting all organizations in the seven western states affiliated with the National Chamber, told the members here that the policy of the National group is dictated by the aggregate opinion of the various small bodies throughout the Nation. He said that the 'Sierra Madres of the country' control the policy of the referendums on national economic and political questions which are submitted to them.

"This forthcoming 74th Congress," Read said, "will be more Socialistic and radical than any Congress in the history of the country, and it is up to the intelligent clear thinkers of the Nation to safeguard the people who are unable to think out economic issues on which rest the future of Democracy."

Several fundamental principles will be settled by the Congress, the speaker pointed out, and it will be decided whether bureaucracy is to flourish, whether currency is to be stabilized, and whether labor bargaining is to be handed exclusively over to the labor unions.

"About the Townsend Plan I can only be facetious," he continued, "To proceed on the basis of getting something for nothing is economically and socially unsound—Neither such a bill or the revised Wagner bill which will come up at the next session can be a panacea for the unemployment problem, but would rather aggravate the situation."

The American Federation of Labor has endorsed the Wagner proposal but, Read thought it would be nothing better than a tool in the hands of professional labor organizations.

"The cost of the Townsend Plan," he said, estimated on statistics indicating the number of persons past 60 years of age, would amount to 25 billions annually—Such unsound pension legislation, and other proposed social insurance would throw the entire economic and social order into chaos.

"The large number of votes given a certain candidate in California's recent election proved a good example of irrational decision, of will o' wisp chasing in opposition to democratic precepts."

"Also there is the danger confronting states' rights which will result from the Congressional attempt to penalize states not falling in line with Federal legislation."

In order to present the force of National conservative opinion before Congress, the U. S. Chamber will send customary referendum to each local Chamber for approval; in the case of especially vital matters, members are to be asked to send personal communications to their Congressmen. Read explained that a two-thirds majority of all the Chambers of Commerce is necessary to carry propositions for National legislation.

Driver Unhurt As His Car Splinters A Telephone Pole

As Martin Johnson, of 600 Auburn avenue, was returning home Wednesday evening from an Alhambra friend's residence his steering wheel suddenly repeated a fairly familiar past performance—and locked. Before Johnson could apply the brakes the car had almost literally wrapped itself about a telephone pole at Mountain Trail and Central avenue.

Officer Harlan Gerlach, summoned to the scene of the accident, found that Johnson was uninjured but for a cut chin. He was taken to Doctor E. L. Jackson for treatment. The telephone pole was splintered.

City Shocked By Death Of Mrs. Andrews

Pioneer Resident Passes Away 11 Days After 59th Wedding Anniversary

The community was shocked to learn of the sudden death of Mrs. Frances A. Andrews, pioneer resident of Sierra Madre at her home, 692 West Central avenue, on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Andrews had had an attack of illness on Tuesday but was believed to be out of danger. She passed away quietly in her sleep, while taking a nap, and was found by her husband, Walter S. Andrews, shortly afterward. Mrs. Andrews' demise came just 11 days following the celebration of her 59th wedding anniversary.

Mrs. Andrews was born September 25, 1853, in Hartford, Conn., where she resided until coming to California 53 years ago. She and her husband had lived at their present residence for 52 years and had seen Sierra Madre grow from a few scattered houses to a city of 4,000. She took a very active interest in club work and was a charter member of Sierra Madre Woman's Club and the Congregational Church, and was a member of the Order of the Eastern Star.

Surviving are her husband, Walter S. Andrews, of this city, two sons, Burton W. Andrews, of Los Angeles, and Raymond D. Andrews, of San Gabriel, and three grandchildren, Regina, Patricia and Raymond, Jr., of San Gabriel.

Funeral services will be held on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Congregational Church, with Rev. Arthur O. Pritchard officiating, and the Grant Funeral Parlor in charge of arrangements. Mrs. H. Randolph Wood, and Mrs. J. N. Hawks will have charge of the music.

Burial services will be held on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Congregational Church, with Rev. Arthur O. Pritchard officiating, and the Grant Funeral Parlor in charge of arrangements. Mrs. H. Randolph Wood, and Mrs. J. N. Hawks will have charge of the music.

Palbearers, all pioneers or members of pioneer families, will be Carlton J. Pegler, James N. Hawks, Rudolph R. Hartman, J. Milton Steinberger, George Norris and George B. Morgridge. Interment will take place in San Gabriel Cemetery.

Improvement Drive Opens In This City

The Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce this week put its full strength back of the Federal Housing Administration's plans, and directors of the local Savings Bank voted to cooperate in every possible way with homeowners and merchants engaged in the building trades in pushing the home modernization campaign to be started here immediately.

A special Chamber of Commerce committee, including Waverly Pratt, John S. Billheimer and Charles B. Klunk, was named at the Chamber's Monday afternoon board meeting, to handle details of the campaign. Other cities, including Pasadena, have secured trained field canvassers through the SERA, and it is expected that Sierra Madre will be able to secure a number of such expert workers to aid in informing the homeowners of the benefits to be derived from the FHA program.

In the meanwhile, the National FHA campaign is being conducted in a manner designed to most interest and influence the smaller communities, such as Sierra Madre. Michael J. McDonough, president of the building trades department of the American Federation of Labor, appealed to all homeowners and workers to co-operate with regional, State and community drives.

"Self help," he states, "is always the best help. We can best help ourselves by working in our respective communities with local bodies set up for the purpose of reviving construction just as we have worked with like bodies in promoting the repair and modernization program of the Administration now in full swing."

Mr. Billheimer, in commenting on the program yesterday, stated: "One of the specific ways we can help in promoting the FHA program is to break down the archaic belief that construction is not feasible or practical in winter months. Modern methods and modern materials make construction in such a place as Sierra Madre as easy and cheap in the winter as in the summer. The weather here in winter is as fine as Spring weather in other sections of the country."

"As a matter of fact there is a real advantage in building and doing repair and modernization work now, for the costs are lower than they are likely to be when building reaches its peak in the Spring."

In explaining the Federal Housing Administration's plan from the bankers' viewpoint, Milton Hollingsworth, vice-president of the Sierra Madre Savings Bank yesterday called attention to the importance of new construction work as well as minor repair projects.

"As the Administration's modernization program became effective," he said, "the results in the form of employment and improved homes were apparent."

"However, at that time it was generally recognized that vast though the needs for repair and modernization, the greatest relief from unemployment and poor housing must come through the second and third titles of the National Housing Act providing for the insuring of loans for new construction, and the freeing of billions of dollars of money so long withheld from industry."

"The Federal Housing Administration is now putting these sections of the law into effect. Under its regulation government insurance on loans up to 80 percent of the value of a completed property at a basic maximum of 5 percent and payable in monthly installments within 20 years, is now available. Provision is also made for the liquidity which conservative banking must insist upon. It is, in a word, a new and square deal for both borrower and lender."

Masons Plan Card Party And Dance On November 24th

An excellent orchestra has been secured for the dancing. The party will begin at 8 o'clock and the closing hour has not been announced. Tickets are now on sale and can be purchased from members. Everyone is most cordially invited.

DO YOU PAY TAXES?

If you have an annual income of $2,080 or less, how much of it goes for taxes?

There's a good chance that you may have little or no property on which taxes must be paid.

But, according to an article by Royal F. Munger in the Chicago Daily News, your taxes come to some $580 a year. One hundred and twenty dollars of this represents taxes included in your rent—the landlord pays them and passes the cost on to you. Ninety-six dollars is included in the price of your family's food—the farmer, the processor, the distributor and retailer pay them, and they become part of the cost of everything in the grocery store. Twenty-four dollars is included in the clothing, furniture and similar items you and your dependents purchase—here again, manufacturers, middlemen and retailers are all heavily taxed and must pass their taxes on to the public.

This totals $240. Finally, says Mr. Munger, other indirect tax burdens that affect the cost of living are estimated to take $240 more out of your family's $2,080 annual income. On percentage basis, as a result, you pay almost twenty percent of all you earn to government.

Too many people have accepted the fanciful theory that the rich pay all the taxes while the rest of us get the benefits for nothing.

No one escapes taxes—no one ever will. And the average man, with a small or medium-sized income, would gain most from retrenchment in tax levies, regardless of the guise under which they may be labeled.

MUCH IS AT STAKE

In one of his books, the late ex-President Wilson said: "I do not want to live under a philanthropy. I do not want to be taken care of by the government. I want only to have right and justice prevail so far as I am concerned. Give me right and justice and I will undertake to take care of myself. I will not live under trustees if I can help it. I do not care how wise, how patriotic, the trustees may be. I have never heard of any group of men in whose hands I am willing to trust the liberties of the American people."

Woodrow Wilson, before he became President, was a distinguished educator and historian, and in that statement he ably reflects the true American spirit—the spirit that won our independence, wrote our Constitution, and gave us democratic government. That spirit is the direct antithesis of paternalism. Its base is in the solid rock of individual self-reliance. Its image is the typical American, who like the War President, wants no one to determine his destinies, and wants only, under fair conditions, to carve out his own future.

If we, as a people, lose that spirit, the word Democracy will ring hollowly indeed. The Nation abounds with those who would have us accept paternalism, fascism, communism—one form or another of dictatorship. They would have us surrender our liberties to a group of public trustees; And by doing that we would, in the fine words of the old saying, be trading our inheritance for a mess of pottage.

MEMBER SKETCHES IS KIWANIS FEATURE

An informal round table discussion of current topics was held at the Kiwanis Club Tuesday afternoon after lunch, when the scheduled speaker of the day failed to put in an appearance. Continuing an entertaining series of thumbnail biographies, Jack Hosford presented a short life's history of Sidney Ellery, local merchant. Harold Roberts was welcomed back into the club after a prolonged absence.

STUDY CLUB TO PLAN WINTER PROGRAMS

The Women's Economic Study group of the Woman's Club will hold a special business session next Friday, November 23, at the Park House, it is announced by Mrs. W. J. Lawless. Plans for the coming winter season will be formulated at the meeting.

Townsend Club Ambassador Coming To Speak On The Plan Here Monday

When news comes that a speaker is on his way to the local Townsend Club, interest is always intensified, but when that speaker happens to be one of "the three ambassadors" just returned from the initial momentous lecture tour of the East, interest is at concert pitch for next Monday evening when Mr. John B. Dundore of Pasadena will give some highly informative views at the Parish House of the Episcopal Church at 7:30 p.m.

An entertaining program of music and readings will augment Mr. Dundore's speech. Mrs. A. E. Pulling will give some humorous readings. It will be enlightening to hear, at first hand, the reactions of those who dwell beyond the Rockies, toward this movement of Dr. Townsend's. A good attendance will inspire the speaker to tell of all the good news that he must certainly have stored away in his portfolio.

Eight or nine clippings of eastern papers were read at the last meeting by the president. They show that publicity is surely and steadily finding its way to the attention of the people.

The excerpt that presaged the utmost, however, was that announcing the fact that E. K. Nadel, a New York producer, intends to present the venerable doctor in a picture entitled "Life Begins at Sixty," in the not too distant future.

This exploitation will serve to bring Dr. Townsend's gracious personality and humanitarian ideals into every hamlet and capitol in the United States.

The doctor is now en route to Washington to confer with the President.

To come nearer home, we learn of the substantial growth of five large Townsend clubs in Monrovia averaging an approximate membership of thirteen hundred members.

The unique club of 250 members of the colored race of which Monrovia boasts is now on the roster of Townsend clubs.

Sierra Madreans See Rare Tapestry At The Bush Studio

Rare blending of color in original design mirroring many old world cultures of Europe and Asia feature an extraordinary exhibition of hand-woven tapestries by Mme. Hendrica van der Flier that was shown here in the studio of Miss Ella Shepard Bush on Sunday and Monday.

Using the Gobelin system of tapestry weaving, developed by the Gobelin family in Paris in 1630, Mme. van der Flier has produced rich tapestries that make apparent her experience in oil painting and composition. Into many she has incorporated historic design, such as the flaming torch and fleur de lis of the City of Seville coat-of-arms, and the 16th Century Gothic "Three Kings and Falcons."

The artist's most ambitious work shown here is a large wall tapestry showing a host of fairy story characters, done in brilliant color and masterful design. This tapestry was completed after 15 months of strenuous daily work.

Mme. van der Flier, who came to California from Holland some years ago, has traveled extensively in search of original atmosphere and background to infuse into her work, and stresses that she does "art weaving," and that her art is not akin to the mechanical and machinized Colonial weaving process. She lectured before small groups of art lovers in Miss Bush's studio both Sunday and Monday afternoons. Miss Bush herself acted as hostess, and served refreshments to guests.

Southern California's Most Beautiful Masoleum

At the present time new additions are being added to the original building and plans are in readiness for future development.

While the building is under construction... many people have chosen their family memorial while others have selected the location of individual crypts, that when the time comes to lay aside one's earthly cares they may know that their last resting place is in a beautiful shrine, a temple of dignity and character.

Our suggestion is that you make a visit to Mountain View Mausoleum and permit us to tell you all about our "Memorial Plan."

You may now purchase crypts at very reasonable prices

LEGISLATURE IS EXPECTED TO PASS A MODIFIED STATE INCOME TAX LAW THIS WINTER

By Ralph H. Taylor
(Executive Secretary, Agricultural Council of California)

A modified State income tax, designed to equalize distribution of the tax load, as well as to bolster State revenues, is almost certain of enactment at the forthcoming session of the State Legislature.

Such, at any rate, is the judgment of many of the State's leading fiscal officers and tax authorities who are casting about for ways and means of balancing the State budget.

Several income tax proposals, with varying rates, will undoubtedly be introduced when the lawmakers convene at Sacramento in January, but it is generally anticipated that the tax finally agreed upon will yield in the neighborhood of $12,000,000 biennially.

An income tax embodying excessive rates, according to the financial experts, is impractical, inasmuch as it would drive capital from the State and defeat its own purpose. But a modified tax on personal incomes, patterned after the levies adopted in several other states in recent years, will have the backing this year of many groups which formerly opposed all forms of income tax, due to seriousness of the financial dilemma confronting the State.

With more than $100,000,000 in new revenues required to close the present gap between income and outgo and wipe out the State deficit, the estimated $12,000,000 in returns under an income tax becomes an important factor.

But even more important, according to some of the fiscal officials, is the imperative need of further tax equalization to eliminate injustices and discrimination.

It is admitted, for example, that 2 1/2 per cent State sales tax fall more heavily on the man or woman of small income than on the wealthy. Yet, the State's financial officers maintain, the sales tax revenues are absolutely essential to permit adequate support of the State school system during a period when general fund revenues are far below normal and insufficient to meet the regular expenditures of government.

The income tax, it is claimed by its sponsors, will offset some of the inequalities of the sales tax, as it will be chiefly a tax on the wealthy and on men and women in the higher salary brackets.

And various business and industrial groups which have previously fought the income tax, recognizing the vital need of tax equalization if the sales tax is to survive, are expected to withdraw their opposition to the income levy at the next session of the Legislature.

Out of the welter of the depression, in the opinion of many of the leaders in State affairs, has come a new willingness on the part of various taxpaying groups to seek a greater measure of fairness and equality in taxation—a new appreciation of the other man's problems.

And in that spirit, they contend, is real hope of reaching an equitable solution of the tax problem, regardless of the various tax proposals finally selected to balance the State budget.

Episcopal Church Needs Told Society

Dean Bode spoke on the work of the Episcopal Church and the needs of the local Parish last Tuesday afternoon at a meeting of the Order of St. Catherine at the home of Miss Jean Woodward, 479 Ramona avenue.

At the close of the meeting tea was served. Decorations were cleverly appointed in white, with tall white candles and white asters gracing the tables. Mrs. D. Goodfellow presided at the tea table.

The next meeting will be held November 20, at the home of Miss Thomasella H. Graham, North Lima street. Members are working with the Woman's Guild of the Church of the Ascension, for its card party to be given this evening.

Sport Slants

By John Copeland

BILL SPAULDING, we hope, has now redeemed himself in the eyes of UCLA fraternity heads, old grads, non-collegiate second guessers and the rest of the horrific swarm of scalp hunters who would supplant Bill by Hanley or one of his eastern brethren. Distance appears to lend more enchantment in the football coaching racket than in most anything else. It's surprising somebody hasn't suggested Huey Long for the Bruin coaching staff head. . . . About everyone else has been mentioned.

At last it happened. Cheshire (who, incidentally, was the sweetest high school ball carrier we've slanted in action, with the exception of Alhambra's Mohler) and Livesay, etc., awoke from their defensive slumber of inferiority—and presto, the lumbering Bruins took the galloping Gaels for a buggy ride.

However, our acumen wasn't up to cashing in our faith in Spaulding's stuff.

MASTERFUL—Bud Masters gives us our weekly food for thought in the delightful form of a brand new system of rating the topnotch pigskin outfits.

Aside from the fact that Bud has proceeded on a sort of sliding scale theory, with games won, points scored, as well as opponents' strength figuring in the outcome, we would not presume to explain the thing to you.

Minnesota tops the list with a 4.84 total, figured from the basis of an admittedly impossible 8 points that could only have been earned if Minnesota had opportunity as well as strength to clean up all the rest of the big shots by large scores. Second comes Ohio State, with 3.84, Stanford with 3.12, Illinois with 2.67, and Alabama tied with Pitt for fifth place with 2.34. Santa Clara rates No. 7 with 2.38, Huey's Louisiana State next with 2.29.

Navy is tenth on the list, and Rice and Temple trail closely behind. St. Mary's is way down in 22nd position—and alas, Princton isn't clear up at 16.

Tomorrow's Navy-Pitt battle will put this listing somewhat to the test; and we've a sneaking suspicion that No. 22 is going to pound the heck out of No. 7 in the Coast's Little Big Game. We positively shudder to think of the outcome of a mythical encounter between No. 16 (Princton) and No. 19 (Oregon, no less). En fact our dough would stay back of the Mad Moragans if they were to tangle with Minnesota.

STIRRUP CHATTER—To a two year old colt yeelp, most prosaically, R. D. Powers, goes the honor of christening the Santa Anita track. Best Lady, a 3-year old, a stablemate of R.D., arrived in the same boxcar. Their trainer praised the equipment and the track itself.

Arcadia is all ready to go into the welcome-to-our-city business in a big way. On Xmas, the day of the first race, flowers and gay streamers will festoon Huntington Drive from Santa Anita to Second avenue. Christmas trees will be liberally scattered all over the place. . . . the new liquor law will be in operation. . . . there will be more people to the square inch than the entire football region has even seen. . . . Oh yes. . . . and on Monday

Ladysman arrived from Lexington, with a stablemate called Osculator. This latter horse is no mean dog himself, having topped Equipose and Mate at various times in his career. Both from the Coe stables.

ANECDOTE—Two men and a gal have learned quite definitely the particular fellow with whom not to fool. Also these particular folks found out whose gas tank contains the most dangerous gas to handle.

On the evening of the first day of the week (Sunday, of course) George Cox came out of his house, at 70 East Montecito avenue, and espied somebody syphoning gas from his car. Happens he was on his way downtown to the gun gallery with an ugly faced army .45 shooting iron. But just as he drew a bead on the visitors' auto tires, Tommy Miller made the mistake of driving by, so Geo. saved a life or two by deflecting his aim into the air, and the unknowns got away in the excitement, while the automatic sent three big bullets crashing through the ozone.

Scared, no doubt. . . .

Orange Picker Is Badly Injured In Fall From A Tree

Falling from a ladder insecurely resting against the top-most branches of a tall orange tree in a Sierra Madre grove, Joseph Cook, an orange picker in the employ of the Alderman company, was seriously injured last Tuesday.

The worker fell about ten feet, alighting on his head and right shoulder. Taken to the Pasadena Emergency Hospital by a fellow employee, Cook was discovered to be suffering from skull fracture, fracture of the nose, and a broken right wrist, but he was not in a critical condition. After treatment, he was sent to the Pasadena general hospital for observation prior to removal to his Pasadena home, at 774 Worchester avenue.

Fire Flames

By One of the Boys

WHAT would have been a strenuous job for any one man to tackle turned out to be a small one for the many firemen on Friday evening. After the regular practice, the chief got the boys together and whispered that the old cement roof over the engine house had to be removed, so that a regular floor could be laid. No sooner suggested than bars and picks began prying and a shower of old cement came down on the parking lot west of the City Hall.

The fellows all think Jim Heasley's luck must be returning. He went to the baseball game at Arcadia on Sunday and won the prize given by the ball club, consisting of a large box of groceries.

Sierra Madre is badly in need of an athletic field. It is little short of shameful that there are young Americans growing up here that cannot play the grand old game of baseball. Surely, with all the vacant land in this country, we can find a place for a ball diamond. There are several firemen that still think they can play baseball, but they say there is not a field big enough in Sierra Madre to prevent them from losing the ball.

While most of the firemen are working on the City Hall roof, enough of the others are engaged at the "Toy Shop." This shop, directly across from the City Hall, is now ready to accept toys. Bring them in as early as possible so that no youngster will be lost sight of in a last minute rush.

Don Hosford has returned to the fold after his annual visit to Lake Tahoe.

The recent foggy and cool nights have been reason enough to light the heating appliances at home for comfort. Great caution should be used at this time of year while enjoying this comfort. That last good warming up before the open fire just before retiring can result in a serious conflagration if one gets too close. Keep your distance.

Vern Udell was busy Monday evening transforming the store-room across from the city hall into a small machine shop. He installed two or three motors, a small drill press, a saw, and several other necessary machines to carry on the "Toy Shop" work.

Bring in your toys and buy a ticket for the forthcoming Christmas Party to be held soon at the Woman's Clubhouse by the firemen to raise funds for the Christmas tree and treat for the kiddies.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
ABOUT THE HOME GARDEN
By Jessie Ward Russell
Landscape Gardener

Q—Landscape—I have a banana plant that has never borne fruit. Is this because of the variety?

A—Yes. You probably have the ornamental banana plant called the Abyssinian Banana which has larger leaves and thicker trunk than the fruiting variety. This variety will bloom when old enough and will bear seed but not bananas. After it is through blooming the plant will die. It does not increase by offshoots as the fruiting varieties do.

Q—When is the Ward variety of avocado ready to pick?

A—When the whole fruit has turned dark. It will turn dark in the lower end first, but is not mature until the whole fruit is dark.

Q—When is the Fuerte variety of avocado ready to pick?

A—It is not so easy to tell when the Fuerte is ripe for the fruit is green even when ripe. The Fuerte variety is hardly fit to eat before Christmas and continues to ripen all winter. A ripe fruit has minute rust-brown spots all over the bottom of the fruit, also the stem turns yellow.

Q—What native shrubs are suitable for the landscape garden?

A—The Ceanothus or wild Lilac is a graceful shrub covered with light blue, deep blue, or white flowers in the early spring. The Native Holly Berry will make a large shrub or small tree.

Children's Dramatic Guild Presents 'Magic Key' In Pasadena And Monrovia; 'Mysterious Princess' Rehearsals Begin

The presentation of "The Magic Key" which was given in the Auditorium of the Pasadena Public Library on Saturday, by the Sierra Madre Children's Dramatic Guild, was such an unqualified success that Mrs. Florence Eakman has been offered the cooperation of the librarians in future Guild productions.

The following children were chosen by the librarian judges for voice production and characterization: Mary Lou Lovejoy, as Black Sambo; Tom Downs, as Tom Sawyer; Betty Spinks, as First Child; Dolores Bartold, Movie Thriller; Lois Pickett, as Pinocchio; Anna Sue Adwell, as the Librarian. The excellent costume of Julia Rossi as Chi-Wee was remarked upon. The director gave an additional award of five gold stars to William Van Meter who gave a very fine portrayal of "Mose," the negro janitor.

The "Magic Key" will be presented, for the sixth time, at the First Christian Church, on Primrose avenue, Monrovia, this evening at 7:45. The public is invited.

A half-hour program will be presented in conjunction with the play, featuring Guild members and child guest artists. The following children will take part in the program: Dolores Bartold, Gabriel Bartold, Dodo Hawley-Walker, Genevieve Benadum, Virginia Ulrey, Dorothy Hogan, Virginia Riley and Dolores Bartold.

After this program rehearsals for "The Mysterious Princess" will be in full swing.

The time allotted for after-school Guild activities is so limited that there is no regular class in creative poetry at present. The following poem will show the keen interest which Marjorie Royce takes in this branch of Guild work:

HARVESTING LOCAL LAD PICTURES WILD LIFE IN ACTION

A folio of pencil sketches depicting wild life of the Southern California mountain backcountry in action, is being made up by young Edward LaLone. Already LaLone has completed three drawings of deer and mountain lions, all of the animals in natural action poses. Proud exhibitor of the work is Fred LaLone, Edward's older brother, who himself is very familiar with the State's wild animals, having trapped, hunted and fished throughout the mountain and forest country.

Notable Showing Of Double Features At The Lyric Theatre

One of the finest double-feature bills ever staged at the Lyric Theatre in Monrovia comes to a close on Saturday when "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" and "The Fountain" wind up a four-day engagement.

Nationally known as a famous stage play, "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" has proven itself just as entertaining on the screen with Pauline Lord, queen of the American stage, making her motion picture debut in the title role. Supporting Miss Lord is a real all-star cast headed by W. C. Field and Zasu Pitts. "The Fountain," a powerful love story which reveals how big people solve the eternal triangle problem, has glamorous Ann Harding starred, with Brian Aherne and Paul Lukas turning in superb performances.

Ladies, do not forget that Friday night is China Night at the Lyric. Every lady attending the Lyric on Friday night receives absolutely free a beautiful piece of 18-carat gold-encrusted China. By attending regularly, you will be able to obtain a complete 50-piece set. It is not too late to start.

Starting Sunday for a four-day run, the Lyric brings to its patrons a truly great picture, "The Barretts of Wimpole Street." Rated a four-star ranking by Liberty, and placed right at the top by numberless critics, this picture is heralded as the outstanding event of the 1934-35 season.

Three screen greats, each a winner of the Academy of Arts award for individual performance, are brought together in this film. Norma Shearer, Fredric March, and Charles Laughton, are cast in the leading roles. March and Shearer, the most romantic team on the screen today, score another hit as big as "Smilin' Through."

BUSINESS UPSWING SHOWN BY SALES TAX

Exceeding the corresponding figure for any previous quarter by more than $400,000, California's retail sales tax collections for the months of July, August and September have reached a total of $12,821,776.18. This was revealed here today by Richard E. Collins, chairman of the State Board of Equalization, which handles the administration of the tax, and is held by the board to show unmistakably the upturn in business.

Work Halted On San Gabriel Dam; Plans May Be Redesigned

Despite protests of workers whose employment depends on the project, work on the San Gabriel Dam No. 1 was discontinued Saturday on the recommendation of County Flood Control Engineer Fisher pending a conference between the Board of Supervisors and Edward Hyatt, Jr., state engineer.

The West Slope Construction company, contractors on the job, agreed voluntarily to hold up operations until Hyatt informs county officials whether it will be necessary to proceed under present plans and specifications, or permit a modification or redesign of plans. Consulting engineers have recommended that the dam be redesigned to permit use of material from Quarry No. 10, now considered waste rock.

FEATURE ENGLISH NOVEL AT EXHIBIT

Application blanks for tickets of admittance to the Huntington Library were received this week by R. C. Copenhaver, secretary of the Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce. Everyone interested in visiting the world famed collection of art works, rare manuscripts, and beautiful gardens of the San Marino institution may secure blanks from him, at the Southern California Edison office on North Baldwin avenue.

Just now an exhibition of the English novel from Chaucer to Conrad is being featured—manuscripts and first editions of English and American authors of the past 500 years.

GALSWORTHY PRIZE WINNER TO LIVE HERE

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cheyney and four children, of Philadelphia, Pa., will move to Sierra Madre December 15. Mrs. Cheyney, who is known professionally as Lucia Trent, is a poet and won the Galsworthy prize last year for her poem, "Empty Dust."

Men And Missions Day Will Be Observed By All Churches Sunday

Next Sunday, Nov. 18, is being observed throughout the country in all churches, as men and missions Sunday. It is not so much a presentation of the work of the church in foreign lands as a call to the men of America to relate themselves in a personal way to Christ's World Program.

One interesting feature of this observance is the non-sectarian character of the movement. Here in Sierra Madre each pastor is taking this opportunity to express the World-wide Mission of Christ in sending his disciples "to every creature."

Transfer Of Forest Service Is Opposed

George Norris, State fire association director, and Bob Babbitt, local volunteer fireman, attended the Angelus Forest Protective Association meet at the Pomona Chamber of Commerce building Saturday evening.

Harold Troxell, hydraulic engineer with the U.S. Geological Survey, spoke of the erosion resulting from the rainfall in the burned area north of La Crescenta and Montrose. It was reported that 13 forest fires occurred during October, burning 29 acres. In the National forest since January there have been 29 fires, destroying 20 acres up until October.

The proposal of transferring the Forest Service from the Department of Agriculture to the Department of the Interior was discussed, and a resolution opposing such a move was adopted.

Women To Organize Physical Culture Club Here Monday

A meeting will be held Monday, November 26, at the home of Mrs. Marion de Beaulieu, 125 East Mira Monte avenue, for the formation of a women's physical culture club and to talk over plans for the organization. Mrs. de Beaulieu is donating her time free of charge. Members will be asked to pay 25c a month to cover gas and electricity bills at the club rooms, where meetings will be held. Every woman in the community is eligible.

TOURISTS BACK FROM 'ROUND THE HORN TOUR

Mrs. and Mrs. W. J. Lawless and Miss Emma Jameson returned Saturday from two months cruise around South America. The trip was made down the west coast, through the Strait of Magellan, and up the east coast visiting the principal cities en route, which include Valparaiso, Santiago, Buenos Aires and Rio de Janeiro.

LOCAL WOMEN FEATURED AT WILSON PTA MEETING

Mrs. D. C. Ashmore, accompanied by Mrs. George B. Morgridge sang "Thanks be to God," at the meeting of the Woodrow Wilson Parent-Teachers Association on Wednesday. The Girls' Glee Club gave a group of numbers. A. C. Brown, principal, answered questions from the question box, in charge of Mrs. H. B. Hersey. The meeting was in charge of Mrs. J. M. Quenell. The 10-2 home room mothers served tea and cookies at the close of the meeting.

HEIGHO! Maidens and men come to the fair! The doors of the Woman's Clubhouse will be flung ajar to the public at 10 a.m. next Wednesday, for the yearly bazaar of the organization.

The urgent plea to send in all articles Tuesday afternoon to facilitate matters was echoed on every side. A call for chrysanthemums and much greenery for decoration is sent forth by Mrs. George M. Lehner. Persons possessing these flowers will be of great assistance if they will simply call up Mrs. Lehner and tell her where to come for them.

Mrs. Woodson F. Jones, who is the power behind the throne in the afternoon bridge party, is going to remain within close proximity to her telephone for those expected reservations. Then there is that palatable dinner Mrs. Blanche Buie and her skilled staff is offering to the hungry populace. It will be steaming and odorless from the ovens at exactly 6 p.m. Get your places! Reservations with Miss Leah Fletcher.

Mrs. W. S. Hull has set her best foot forward toward the fancy work booth where she and her colleagues will sell all manner of attractive articles.

Mrs. E. D. Burbank and her workers can think of nothing but gifts for friends these days that are bordering on the holidays. Of course, they mean to sell these gifts.

Mrs. Roess and her committee will meet this afternoon at her home at 1 o'clock to discuss last minute plans.

The apron team with Mrs. W. E. Farnum have only about seven days to go with everybody in fine shape. These are seasoned apron-makers at the game.

Have kept something awfully nice for the last! And that is news of a miniature revue to be staged by vivacious Cricket Calkin in the evening. Isn't that interesting?

Miss Regina Gority, beloved music chairman, will give "Moments in Music," too. And you can be munching some of that delectable fondant Mrs. Hollingsworth is going to sell while you are enjoying these delightful artists.

So lock up your houses, there will be plenty of fun. Oh, come to the fair!

The cheerful cosiness of the Woman's Club drew another statement of policy. Accompanying him on his Sierra Madre visit was R. A. Cook, field secretary of the same organization.

At the conclusion of the conference with Read, the directors discussed and voted on a number of propositions submitted for referendum by the Washington office. Approval was given to several items drafted for the purpose of simplifying and strengthening the President's authoritative relationship to matters pertaining to the National budget.

It was voted that executive budget estimates should be submitted to Congress about March 1 instead of at the present unsatisfactory early time, and that the President should be authorized to discontinue such budget activities as he might see fit. Recommendation was made for a more strict classification of expenditures, so that all but true emergency measures would have to come out of actual income.

Local members were opposed to any Federal taxpayer being given the right to join expenditures which will create deficiencies, on the ground that all anti-administrative factions would continually be causing trouble under such a system. Proposal to take the accounting system out from under the supervision of the Comptroller General was also vetoed.

Approval was given the proposal for a budget committee for each house of Congress, and to joint hearings between House and Senate appropriation committees. Several other issues, designed to make for economy and efficiency of government were discussed by E. D. Burbank, National councilor of the local Chamber and other board members, and were approved. President J. S. Billheimer, announced appointment of a nominating committee as provided by a recent change in the by-laws, to include Charles B. Klunk, chairman, Mrs. Jessica H. Wright and P. R. Penn. Directors and officers for the coming year will be nominated by the committee to be voted upon at next months election.

group of members within its confines, Wednesday, for the monthly meeting, although the stereotyped word, "meeting" cannot cover the fullest expression of friendship that emanated from the gathering.

It was essentially an occasion typifying unity, idealism, understanding, and welcome. And these attributes were all expressed by each speaker who contributed a part. Mrs. A. E. Pulling, in a smart navy and white costume, seemed to strike this cord of harmony the instant she raised the gavel. Her sentiment to the new and old members assembled before her, "Remember, we are making memory in our todays for our tomorrows!" was gracefully quoted.

The charming voice of Miss Regina Gority, who sang "When Pershing's Men Came Marching into Picardy," carried out the tribute to understanding and unity among all peoples. Miss Gority also delighted her hearers with that rollicking selection, "Come to the Fair," which she laughingly dedicated to Mrs. Lehner in recognition of her forthcoming bazaar next Wednesday. Mrs. Myrtle Hill accompanied at the piano.

Mrs. Al Myers, chairman of Child Welfare, announced a card party to be given by the P.T.A. for the Child Welfare Fund on December 7th, and asked the interest of the club in this most meritorious work.

Then the curtain dropped on the landscape that was Sierra Madre, and the principals and cast left the stage. In their place came Mrs. Catherine W. Watkins, artist and world traveler, who in the first, well-modulated words of her address, carried her audience across the sea to Paris. Not the studio Paris of tourists who have known it for a mere month, nor the Paris of disappointed strangers and jaded Bohemians, nor yet that Paris of fashionable shoppers who know it as the home, only, of Worth, Poiret, and Malynieux; but the Paris of a person who has lived in it for ten years.

It was so easy to feel the truth of Henry Van Dyke's lines, "Paris is a woman's town with flowers in her hair; while London is a man's town with power in the air," as Mrs. Watkins spoke. And it was clearer still to see the boulevards that Napoleon, Marie Antoinette, Murat, Robespierre and all the others have trodden as the gifted speaker proceeded to paint the landscape in words as deftly as she does in oils.

Mrs. Minnie Burbank Clendenon, past president of the Cosmos Club of Los Angeles, seems justified in remarking that, "Really good women speakers are scarce. Mrs. Catherine Watkins is one of the finest that I know of." For so many salient points bearing the undeniable mark of authenticity were brought to the fascinated attention of the audience. The intriguing description of her residence in a courtyard studio for many happy years among men and women who know the definition of unselfish freemasonry and comradeship, was surpassed only by glowing glimpses of Parisian family life which included the very practical valuation French women have set upon American men as desirable husbands.

The 12:30 luncheon, especially prepared to tempt the new members, was a fitting complement to the program of the day. Miss Fletcher's artistic decorative ability played no small part in the arrangements. In keeping with the motif of mutual understanding and tolerance Rev. Arthur O. Pritchard delivered an address replete with wisdom. "One of the fundamental lessons of the day is the necessity of learning to live together in peace," he said. "Lean to differ and still be friends. The basis of American democracy is to have a man find the truth and say so when he finds it." Mrs. Lawless gave a brief sketch of her trip to the beautiful capitol of South America.

Santa Claus' Toy
Shop Opens But Few
Trinkets Turned In

The Toy Shop moved into its regular quarters in the store room at 60 West Central avenue, opposite the City Hall the fore part of the week, and the Volunteer Firemen now await the delivery of broken toys to repair in readiness for Christmas distribution to the less fortunate children of Sierra Madre.

Fire Chief W. D. Richards reports that very few toys have been received yet, and that now is when members of the department have most time to devote to the work.

"We want all sorts of toys," Chief Richards states, "including drums, coaster wagons, dolls, various kind of games, and so forth. If anyone having such toys that they think we could possibly repair and make into an acceptable presents will communicate with us at the City Hall, we shall call for them."

For several years the Firemen have contributed six weeks' time before Christmas to the Toy Shop enterprise, and every year scores of local children who otherwise would have had a dreary Christmas day have awakened to find the hoped for presents. At this time it is up to the people of the city to contribute material for the Firemen's work.

If you have toys to contribute, phone 51.
